

THE Gleichen Call

Fourteenth Year, No. 8

GLEICHEN, ALBERTA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 1919

$1.50 Per Year

CLUNY ITEMS

Subscriptions for The Call are taken at the Cluny Drug Store.

Miss Wilde spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. H. Hamer.

The balance of the townsite of Cluny is being surveyed into lots and ten acre plots.

Through the energy of the Cluny Board of Trade work will start on a better roads project next week.

Reports in this district on stock lost in the recent heavy storm are very light compared to the reports from other districts.

The Call is on sale at the Cluny Drug Store.

Cluny is in the field with a baseball association and a snappy ball team this year. Games can be arranged for through the manager.

The Cluny Board of Trade had a meeting last week and much important business was taken up. The secretary will answer any correspondence regarding this district.

You can subscribe for The Call or buy a copy at the Cluny Drug Store. Leave any news there and it will be forwarded.

The greater production and leased land is all seeded and looking fine. There is around thirty thousand acres in crop in this new district and is a sample of the best land in Alberta.

Namaka Doings

On the list of successful students in the recent second year examinations of the Queenstown University of Ontario the name of Alban D. Winnpear appears. He is at present on the teaching staff of the Western Canada College at Calgary.

Owing to the storm the box social and dance to be given in the Hammer Hill school last Friday was postponed to Friday night, May 16. Coffee will be served and everyone is invited to attend.

A sale of work will be held in the I.O.O.F. Hall at Namaka on Friday afternoon, May 23rd, at 3:30, when tea will be served and a program of vocal and instrumental music rendered, to be followed by a dance at 8:30. Gentlemen $1 and ladies 50 cents admission.

W. W. Winnpear has sold his stock of general merchandise to J. W. McIntosh of Hanna, who takes charge of the business immediately. Mr. and Mrs. Winnpear propose to take a trip to their former home in England and are now offering for sale their piano and entire household effects.

The Gleichen Girls Club dance to be given in the Opera House on Friday evening, May 23rd, will be a great success if we may judge by the enthusiastic manner in which the girls are pushing the sale of the tickets. The other day The Call man was held up no less than six times by the dear ones while walking less than a block to buy a

Gleichen to Celebrate May 24 Victoria Day

Committee Promise a Good Program of Sports

The members of the committee in charge of the program for May 24th are working hard to make it one of the very best and most attractive ever held in Gleichen, and are meeting with every encouragement. In a few days they hope to have the program completed and to issue posters and full information.

The Gleichen Girls Club are giving a dance in the Opera House on the previous night—May 23rd—which will make a splendid start for the celebration of Victoria Day and act as an introduction of the events which be as follows as near as the committee is aware at the present writing:

Baseball Game—Strathmore vs. Gleichen

Sports for the Children—Consisting of Races, Jumping Contests, etc., etc. Suitable prizes being offered for each event.

Junior Baseball Match—Will be arranged with the Bassano School Boys if possible.

Tug of War—Arrangements are under way to bring a team from Strathmore to compete against Gleichen team.

Horse Races—

Indian races.
Cow Horse Turn race.
Boys and Girls Pony race.
Shetland Pony race.
Slow driving race.

Dancing—Open Air Platform.

Gleichen Citizens Band in Attendance.

The Gleichen District Agricultural Association is putting on this field day and the members are anxious to make it a success in order that it may prove a worthy forerunner of numerous similar propositions they are considering for the future.

Friday Clean-up Day

For the purpose of cleaning up the town the afternoon of Friday, May 16th, has been declared a half holiday.

Citizens are expected to have their own yards cleared before that date.

A. R. TUDHOPE,
Mayor.

Several warnings have been handed out by the health officers, and in some cases these have not been attended to. It is the intention to prosecute all offenders who fail to comply with the health by-laws.

ticket, and others no doubt are just as popular; so be prepared to meet a big crowd that night. The girls are giving this dance in order to raise funds to enable them to procure recreation equipment for their new Club, such as basket ball outfits, etc. Thus all who attend this dance are assured of a good time and at the same time will be assisting the girls. All are cordially invited to be present.

Sergt. Joe Atherton has certainly added materially to the perfecting of motion picture photography in what he styles "speaking pictures".

Monday and Tuesday nights he produced "Shell Shocked" in the Opera House in which the photos were of himself and he spoke the actual words at the exact moment they appeared on his lips in the picture. This made it appear more life-like and saves time and trouble in reading the eye-trying scrolls. The sergeant wrote the story himself, which is founded on an actual occurrence in Calgary, and those who missed the entertainment may well regret it. The Call man has known him personally for many years as a printer and writer and we wish him every success.

QUEENSTOWN

Just watch the grain grow after the storm.

At the present time it don't like a dry year for us.

The Farmers' Local met in the hall Saturday last.

There are quite a few Fordsons at work in the district this year.

The "du" has finally departed from our midst. Let us hope it may never return.

If Gleichen Fair prizes of $85.00 for farm gardens includes the famous Queenstown district the Gleichen farmers will have to go some.

Harry Dietz has sold his Section 18 to D. Ingraham for $50 an acre. This sounds cheap for Queenstown real estate, but as none of it is in shape for crop this year this is a fair price.

The population in Queenstown is increasing by leaps and bounds. There is girl babies in the Roy Tom and the Rogers' households, while at Arch. McCloud, W. Blower and Ed. McCallum's homes there are boy babies.

The Queenstown farmers have asked the Provincial Government for telephone connection with Vulcan and also to have 'phones put in to the farmers homes. We have been notified that there is nothing doing in either case. It's about time the farmers sent a few more representatives to Edmonton instead of the bunch we have there now.

Lost, strayed or stolen—the Queenstown railroad. Has anybody heard what's become of it? In the meantime the town of Milo is forging ahead just as though the road was here already. The Bank of Hamilton claims to do an enormous business, the store clerks are working overtime, while a number of new business enterprises are planned and will be set in motion this summer.

COMING EVENTS

Charges are 25c. per line under Coming Events heading unless otherwise advertised with the CALLS.

May 16—Box Social at Hammer Hill school.

May 23—The Gleichen Girls Club dance.

May 23—Sale of Work in I.O.O.F. Hall at Namaka.

Mrs. Peter MacLean and family has returned to Gleichen from Vancouver, where they have resided for nearly two years. Her numerous friends are pleased to see her once more and also to hear her again as she is the most accomplished singer in these parts.

You will dance with the girls on May 23rd? They ask you to.

If Your Food Ferments or Disagrees Just Read This!

Thousands of broken-down despondent dyspeptics have recently been given back their health.

These happy people don't proclaim it was a miracle that endowed them with a new lease of life—it was simply their common sense in selecting a tried and proven medicine, one specially adapted to their particular ailment.

All these splendid cures were effected by Dr. Hamilton's Pills which beyond all question have a strange power to restore a weak or ailing stomach.

If your stomach is tried and overworked by Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and note the prompt improvement. Pain before or after eating will disappear. You'll no longer have that nauseous, gassy, bad tasting sensation. You'll get a real vigorous appetite and digest what you eat. Lots of well digested food is bound to increase your strength, to make you brighter and more ambitious. In a week you'll feel like a different person, in a month you'll be permanently restored.

For folks who are out of sorts, not feeling just up to the scratch, perhaps bothered with headaches or constipation, to them Dr. Hamilton's Pills will prove a boon.

THE COMLYN ALIBI

—BY—
HEADON HILL

WARD, LOCK & CO., LIMITED
London, Melbourne, and Toronto

"I have been talking horse sense to Miss Comlyn," she said quietly. "You two children are much too nice and guileless to have you idly spoiled by the bouncer who is trying to scare me with his ugly looks. You will find that she doesn't any longer think me the dangerous and immoral person that she has been breaking her brave little heart over. I may be dangerous, but the danger is for the hulking brute who has been riding rough shod over the souls of men and women. Now, sir, if you please."

She faced Swayne who, still with that air of trying to gain time, had allowed her to run on, but who now stepped forward to meet a maid servant entering with a telegram. He tore it open, and read it with a clearing brow and extended his hand to the perspiring Noakes.

"Your axiom is indicated," he declared. "The Yard takes off its hat to you, sir."

And then, quick as lightning, he drew a revolver and covered the tenant of Comlyn Court.

"Hands up, Tucson!" he commanded. "You have been identified as the man who bought an I'zingari ribbon four days before your wife's murder. To a man of your acumen the deduction will be obvious."

The assemblage held their breaths, Morgan's accomplices and would-be captors alike prepared for anything from a criminal who so far owed him immunity to untamed ferocity rather than to the subtleties of his trade. To their surprise he raised his hands above his head with every show of meek submission. Noakes blew a whistle, and two uniformed constables tramped in from the hall.

"Handcuff that man," he ordered them. "And when you have secured him clap the dardies on this one," indicating the professor, who was already holding out trembling hands in a quite needless confession of simplicity.

Then Morgan spoke, his usually deep voice hushed almost to a whisper. His eyes had been fixed on Jeavons in sinister scrutiny since the entry of the men in blue.

"You are running in my guest. Why don't you make a clean sweep and take my servants as well," he sneered. "My butler, for instance. I wonder that you clever folk hadn't footed him into the bill as an accomplice."

"Don't worry, Tucson," Jeavons said, his hazy eyes turned to King's evidence. "I am not a fool. I will swear that you were at the Court at the time of your wife's death, and as to several other things. Ah! look out you fools. You've blocked my aim. On to him! Down him!"

But the warning was too late. The rural constables, unused to such work, had put Swayne's revolver out of action by their clumsy advance. Morgan had taken instant advantage. He dropped his hands, one of them flying like lightning to his pocket, and was rushing to the door, a Browning automatic clutched in his right fist. Swayne fired at him, but missed. Then in the doorway Morgan halted and, wheeling round, quickly discharged two shots. With a fluttering moan Laura Gaspard sank to the floor and Jeavons, coughing horribly, staggered against Swayne, spilling the aim which sent two wide bullets after the desperate fugitive.

"My God!" he means to kill Mavis," shouted Tony, and hurled himself into the entrance hall.

"But Morgan had no grudge against the girl who had not actively opposed his ends. His mad lust of vengeance was sated, and his one object now was to make a bold bid for escape. He raced through the hall for the open front door, through which came the gentle purr of the engine of his car. It had been kept running in accordance with standing orders given to Leroux always to have the car ready for instant departure when not in the garage.

So it was that Tony, relieved from the anxiety which had started him in pursuit, slackened pace a little and only reached the front door as the desperate man was flinging himself into the tonneau of the car. Tony had drawn the weapon bought at his darkest hour the night before, and could easily have fired with fatal effect; but as there was no question now of saving life he hesitated to use it. The fugitive was an outlaw and would be certain to be rounded up, even if the splendid automobile granted him a brief respite.

Tony's reluctance to shed blood nearly proved his undoing, for Morgan, once settled in the car, turned savagely to fight a rear guard action. The deadly Browning covered the young baronet before he could return the compliment.

"Let her rip, Leroux," Morgan called over his shoulder to the chauffeur. "It's a bit too thick here. I had to get busy with my gun on Jeavons and that Gaspard slut. King's pistol, he turned to the front seat to learn the cause of the silence and delay. The side view he got of the Frenchman's impassive features told him nothing, and still his storm of abusive questions met with no reply. He began to clamber over into the front compartment, and in so doing exposed his flank to the reinforcements which had arrived.

But Jacques Leroux, the chauffeur with the face of a saint and with a heart soaked in sin, sat motionless at the wheel. For purposes of rapid locomotion the great racing car was as useless as a fifty shilling bicycle with a punctured tire.

The string of oaths which Morgan began to hurl at the chauffeur had no result. Sheltering himself as best he could from a possible bullet from Tony's pistol, he turned to the front seat to learn the cause of the silence and delay. The side view he got of the Frenchman's impassive features told him nothing, and still his storm of abusive questions met with no reply. He began to clamber over into the front compartment, and in so doing exposed his flank to the reinforcements which had arrived.

A stern voice bade him surrender, and perforce he turned at bay. There at the open door stood Kenyon, Swayne and Tony, all with their weapons levelled at point blank range. But the victory was not to the firearms. The motionless figure at the wheel of the great car suddenly stirred. The little fingers of the chauffeur shot out and twined round the bull neck in a grip of steel. Morgan tried to wriggle free of the pitiless clutch, but the unexpected enemy would not let go.

"Fig, swine!" hissed Leroux into the purring face. "This is what you get for that you shoot that most lovely angel. I spit upon you. I make delivery of you to messieurs of the surete. I also shall be what you call the evidence of the King."

The rest was easy. While those whose duty it was secured their prisoner, Tony carefully unloaded his pistol.

"Queer thing," he quaintly apostrophized the venomous implement as he tucked it out of sight. "I haven't owned you four-and-twenty hours, you have had a varied assortment of adventures, yet I haven't heard your bark. One thing is—if you'd been used for what you were bought for I don't suppose I should have heard much."

And leaving it at that, he went back into the house and through the hall to the billiard room. Mavis was trying to comfort the weeping Susan Hever, but at sight of her lover she ran to meet him.

"Oh, Tony!" she cried as her arms went about his neck. Then she, too, wept, but only for a little while.

CHAPTER XXXV. The Axiom Vindicated

It was the last day of August, a year later to a day. Sir Anthony West was in the gun room at Western Abbey, inspecting his battery of breech loaders with a view to the opening of the shooting season, when a footman came to say that Superintendent Noakes had called to see him about a poacher who had been caught by a keeper in one of the outlying coverts.

"Show him in here," replied Tony. "And—er—Richards, you know what to do—what?"

"Bring a syphon and the whiskey decanter, Sir Anthony?" grinned the country bred footman.

"Get out, you rascal," his master bade him in the undignified way that made all his servants his adoring slaves.

Noakes, fanning himself with his cheese cutter cap, tramped heavily in, and, after formally shaking hands, sank into the chair which his host indicated. The footman bustled in with the tray and as speedily departed.

"So one of my chaps has caught a poacher?" said Tony when he had done the honors. "You have got to let him go, Noakes. I shan't prosecute any poor devil for filling his stomach at my expense—not for a very long time, at least. This is a red letter day, my friend: Lady West presented me with a son and heir in the small hours this morning."

"I am not surprised—I mean that you have my hearty congratulations," Sir Anthony, the superintendent corrected himself. "I am glad to hear that her ladyship and the infant are doing well. So I am to let the poacher go? He's an old hand. Several previous convictions."

"I don't care if there are a hundred," said Tony, restoring a gun to the rack and seating himself. "You have probably forgotten that today has another claim on my mercy. It is the anniversary of the one that saw the scotching of Morgan and his crew, and made me the happiest man in the world."

"Is it, indeed, Sir Anthony? It ought to be somewhere thereabouts, but I'm no great hand at dates, unless they're in a charge sheet, Lord!

but that was a hot time to fall on a man of my build at the tail of a warm summer. But I vindicated my honor, sir, the day—Morgan, alias Tucson, was hanged in Bodmin jail. The judge was kind enough to compliment me at the trial, laying down the law that if a married woman is killed when no one else can have killed her it's bound to be the husband." The declaration was uttered so solemnly that Tony did not see the humor of it till it was too late to laugh, and afterwards, thinking it over, he was glad that he had not laughed. This mountain of flesh, in which was embedded the true instinct of the crime cracker, would have saved him a month of mental agony but for his own folly in sticking to a pledge won from him with fraudulent intent.

And then they fell into talk of the events which in quick succession had followed the capture of the desperate criminal who had so long evaded justice. It was a double murder for which he paid the penalty for Laura Gaspard, the wayward girl, described by herself as "never having had a chance," was dead when Doctor Kyle reached her side. Jeavons was more fortunate and recovered in time to give evidence at the trial. He was able to swear that Morgan arrived at Comlyn Court early on the day of the murder, quite secretly, and gave him instructions which resulted in Mike Hever and Susan being during the afternoon at certain places where they got a vague glimpse of some one wearing an I'zingari ribbon, but of them rashly jumping to the conclusion that the wearer was Sir Anthony West—the only possessor of the gaudy badge they knew of.

Then when the seeds of suspicion, designed to separate Mavis from her lover, had been sown, Jeavons had been bidden to shake the value of the testimony which it had never been Morgan's object to put to the test in court. Jeavons, a master of petty intrigue, had found an easy task in making Michael Hever and his daughter testify themselves, so that they were not called at the inquest, and after that all went well for a while with the conspirators.

"Professor" Zimbalist, who it may here be recorded got twenty years for his share in the plot, came to Comlyn Court with Morgan when the latter openly arrived as the bereaved husband. The radium explorations at the old mine occupied the two principals till the poking and prying of Tom Burbury, with the consequent activities of the plucky little curate, brought Clayton Kenyon's trained intelligence into the game.

"They were fighting a lost battle after Mr. Kenyon butted into 'em," Noakes wagged his great head solemnly. "Tramp and curate's father, and me within a yard of him in the pantry! It would have spoiled the whole thing if he had coughed in that cupboard and I'd had to lock him up for abducting Master Tom."

"I imagine that Kenyon would have found a way out of the difficulty," said Tony. "He is a K.C. now and going into parliament, he writes me. The Burbury boy is to study law in his chambers as soon as he's left school, and good luck to 'em! I say I. My wife and I owe him my return to Western Abbey, as you know. The radium he spotted enabled us to buy back the dear old place when Mr. Comlyn died from the shock of his good fortune a month after our marriage. Yes, along with you, Noakes, I place Clayton Kenyon and Tom Burbury as dead heaters in re-establishing the Wests in the home of their fathers. And I wasn't forget Mr. Clegg, who risked his job by not turning up to perform the ceremony and so secured that priceless delay."

"Does Mike Hever continue to behave himself?" inquired the superintendent with professional interest. "If you mean is he well disposed towards me, I should say he is almost too much so," Tony grinned. "He insists on considering himself one of the family. Once, when I locked him up on the wreck, he called me 'Nephew' but he was jolly sheets in the wind and he hasn't done it since. I shouldn't be surprised, though, if the old sinner doesn't offer to stand godfather to the bald-headed little squawker upstairs."

"He'd never take the liberty!" protested Mr. Noakes, whose reverence for the county families was part of the full-blooded conservatism on which he prided himself. "And if he did you'd never let him?"

"A far-away look for a moment clouded the frank meridian in Tony's eyes. Rising, he walked to the window and gazed over the noble breadth of park towards the wealth of woodland that sheltered his ancestral home from the north wind. Then he turned upon the stout police officer, and the genial twinkle came back as he answered the question.

"I am not sure that I shouldn't, Noakes," he said. "Trouble is a great leveller and makes one a bit of a democrat. What's caste anyhow, chucked the balance against getting a low of new pals you never counted on? Mike Hever's one of 'em. I was only joking about his standing godfather, but if he wants to be his welcome. And now, old friend, make yourself cosy as long as you like, but I'm about due to go and pay my respects to the young sportsman in the best bedroom."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR MAY 18 — THE GRACE OF GOD

Grace means unmerited favor. God's grace means his kindness toward us through Jesus Christ (Eph. 2:7). God's mercy does not go out to men because they are good but because he is good and desires to bestow that goodness upon lost and ruined men in order to make them good.

1. The Grace of God is Salvation (Eph. 2:4-10).

Grace brings salvation; it does not send it. Jesus Christ, who is the embodiment of God's love and grace, came bringing salvation with him. In order to apprehend what the grace of God has done, observe:

1. Man's natural state (Eph. 2:1-3). In the natural man is found all that is opposed to the will and purpose of God. (1) Dead in trespasses and sins (v. 1). The supreme need of the dead man is life, therefore he, must have life from without himself. The characteristic of one who is dead is "past feeling." (4:19). The natural man, therefore, can neither love God nor hate sin until he is made alive. (b) Without motion. Activity is the demonstration of life. So far as God and holiness are concerned they are motionless. They are as helpless as Lazarus was in the grave. (2) Under the control of fleshly and worldly lusts (v. 2). The carnal nature holds sway over their lives. (3) Under the domination of Satan (v. 2). All unregenerate men and women are ruled by Satan. Since he is the god of this age (2 Cor. 4:4), the prince of this world (John 12:31) all who have not been freed by Christ are under the rule of Satan. (4) Under the condemnation and wrath of God (v. 3). Over all these—death, worldliness, disobedience, lust of the flesh—hangs the wrath and condemnation of God.

2. Man's state by grace (2:4-10). (1) He is alive in Christ (v. 5). The Holy Spirit lays hold upon men dead in sin and quickens them into life. (2) Raised up with Christ (v. 6). God's grace not only makes lost men alive but raises them up with Christ. (3) Association with Christ in glory (v. 6). Christ's incarnation has so identified himself with the race that those who are saved are raised up to be with Christ and shall ultimately share his glory. The actuating principle of God which moved him to thus lay hold upon lost men is his love (v. 4). Man's salvation is due entirely to God's grace. Not only the salvation has been provided in grace but the faith which appropriates it is God's gift (v. 8). Works as grounds of salvation are absolutely excluded. (4) The purpose of God in the salvation of men (v. 7, 10). (a) It is to display his grace in the coming ages. The demonstration to the inhabitants of the spheres in which sin has not entered, in the ages to come, will be the transformation of dead and lost men and their exaltation with Christ. (b) To glorify God through their good works (v. 10; cf. Matt. 5:16). While good works have absolutely no part in the salvation of men, God's purpose in saving them was that they might do good works.

3. The Grace of God in Right Living (Titus 2:11-14).

Grace is not only essential to salvation but essential to right living. It teaches saved men (1) to deny ungodliness (v. 12). The saved man has the divine nature. The grace which has saved him teaches him the necessity of a denial of everything that is opposed to God. (2) Worldly lusts (v. 12). The redeemed man is surrounded with the things of the world which have a downward pull upon him. The grace of God teaches him to renounce them. (3) Sober living (v. 12). The grace of God teaches the saved man self-control; to have the reins of his nature well in command and to rule with a strong hand. (4) Righteous living (v. 12). The grace of God teaches the saved man to live uprightly with reference to those about him. (5) Godly living (v. 12). It teaches him to so live in this present world as to enable him to meet God and abide in his fellowship. (6) It teaches the right motive in living (v. 13, 14). The blessed hope of the glorious return of the Lord Jesus Christ is the grand incentive to holy living in this present world. He that has it will keep himself pure. (1 John 3:3).

Community Clubs

The Community Club movement is making good headway in the province of Manitoba under the able supervision of Mr. F. C. Middleton, organizer. A large number of clubs have been formed. Below we give copy of constitution, which gives an idea of how beneficial clubs can be to the community in which they are formed.

A general committee shall be elected composed of one or more representatives of the various organizations or sections represented in the club.

Standing committees, with conveners as above stated, and drawing two or more of their number from the general committee, may be appointed as follows:

1. Public Forum Committee—
(a) To arrange for local debates and secure speakers from time to time who shall deal with public issues and matters of social welfare generally.

(b) To co-operate with the extension department of the agricultural college and the university.

(c) To encourage the formation, use and upkeep of a community library, using the schools as headquarters wherever feasible.

(d) To arrange for an annual address from the local member of parliament, preferably before the opening of the legislature.

Note—It is distinctly understood, that while contentious public issues may be discussed on their merits, the community club will not allow its forum to be used for the purpose of party propaganda.

2. Better Business Committee—
This committee shall be composed of farmers and business men, and shall take under review the following:
(a) Local marketing conditions and possible improvements; good roads campaign.

(b) The wisdom of establishing a flour mill, a creamery, a market garden, or any other local enterprise.

(c) Better methods of buying and selling by the local merchants.

(d) Better methods of fire protection.

(e) Sympathetic co-operation between the farmers and merchants of the community.

(f) Better credit facilities for farmers from local banks.

(g) Helping men on rented farms to become owners.

3. Young People's Committee—
This committee shall be composed of those interested in young people's work:

(a) To co-operate with the churches in undertaking a definite program of activities through the provincial Boy Scouts, the Manitoba schools association, the rural Y.M.C.A. or the rural Y.W.C.A.

(b) To co-operate with the school board, in introducing manual training and domestic science classes in the public schools.

(c) To initiate when necessary action looking toward the organization of a consolidated school.

(d) To arrange, if necessary, separate meetings for the young people, especially teen-age boys and girls.

4. Public Health Committee—
It shall be the duty of this committee:

(a) To work in co-operation with the local health officer in encouraging the use of garbage barrels and regular removal of refuse.

(b) To see that the streets, lanes, and vacant lots in the town are kept free from litter and rubbish.

(c) To encourage the use of a sewerage system for both town and country homes.

Lumber Mill Burned

Vancouver, B.C. — Fire on April 18 completely destroyed the Beaver River Lumber company's sawmill, in the neighborhood of New Westminster. Just how the fire started is not definitely known. The sawmill and the shingle mill were both burned to the ground, as was also the lumber that was piled in the yards, as well as the shingles stored in the dry kilns and sheds. It is estimated the loss will be in the neighborhood of about $75,000.

Why isn't bigamy a two-fold blessing?

Abhor the Turks

Saloniki. — Dr. Guimis, who for thirty years had worked for the deliverance of northern Epirus from the Turks and for its union with Greece, was assassinated several days ago at Koritsa by a Moslem. The funeral, which was attended by 10,000 persons, according to dispatches from the Athens news agency, resolved itself into a manifestation in favor of Greece.

Build up for the Spring

Attack! Put the body in condition for an invasion of the germs of grip, pneumonia or "Spring fever."

At this time of the year most people suffer from a condition often called Spring Fever. They feel tired, worn out, before the day is half thru. They may have frequent headaches and sometimes "pimply" or pale skin and white lips.

The reason for this is that during the wintertime, shut up within doors, eating too much meat and too little green vegetables, one heaps fuel into the system which is not burned up and the clinkers remain to poison the system—a clogging up of the circulation—with inactive liver and kidneys. Time to put your house in order.

For an invigorating tonic which will clarify the blood, put new life in the body, sparkle to the eyes, and a wholesome skin, nothing does so well as an herbal extract made from Blood and Stone root, Oregon grape root and Wild Cherry bark, which has been sold for the past fifty years as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By reason of the nerves feeding on the blood, when the blood is pure the nerves feel the effect, and neuralgia or other nerve pains disappear because such pain is the cry of the starved nerves for food.

Stratford, Ont. — "I can highly recommend Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets. I have used these remedies twenty-five years in my family. Had a very bad case of neuralgia and 'Golden Medical Discovery' completely cured me in a very short time. I have given it to all my family, also to my grand children. I had a grand-child last summer that we thought could not live. We gave him the 'Discovery' and he is strong and healthy as any child could be. I am a great believer in Doctor Pierce's Medicines and would not be without them." — Mrs. A. Bowling, 268 Railway Ave.

Stratford, Ont. — "For many years I suffered with neuralgia. It would affect my head, extending down into my neck and shoulders. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and was completely cured." — W. J. Tane, 272 Railway Avenue.

Transporting Canada's Soldiers Home

A returning soldier on a transport in a Canadian Harbour is not expected to philosophically await facilities of transport. A cheering crowd in an inland town, waiting for troop trains to arrive, isn't likely to be perfectly patient either. But a fairly large proportion of the workers of Canada—those engaged in railway service—are putting in long strenuous days, these times of demobilization, to get the fighting men back to their homes with the least delay possible.

Just how stupendous that work of rail transport is, may be surmised from the fact that from March 17 to April 23, both dates inclusive, this year, from the port of Halifax there have been handled over the rails of Canadian National Railways to interior gers. This colossal movement required the utilization of 107 special trains as enumerated in this newspaper from time to time, and it speaks volumes for the self sacrificing zeal of the rank and file of the roads that this total of almost fifty thousand men have been moved as swiftly and silently as if the total had been but a tenth of those actually transported.

Probably never again will Haligonians see such a procession of great ships loaded with soldiers in that magnificent harbour. The list, day by day, is imposing.

On March 17, the Carmania docked at 9:15 a.m. with 2769 soldiers and 275 civilians. The ticketing was rushed through and nine special trains were despatched in 6 hours. Two days later the Celtic warped in to her berth at 7:40 in the evening. She carried 2810 troops of all ranks. In less than 4 hours the soldiers had been forwarded, the actual time for despatching being placed at two hours and a half. The day following, March 20th, the Baltic docked. She carried 3200 returning men, to handle whom five specials were sent out in three hours and 35 minutes. There was an interval of four days before the Celtic docked at 9:05 a.m., with 1802 soldier passengers. Again, four specials were moved out in two hours and 45 minutes. Next day, March 25, the Royal George, with 1388 troops aboard docked at 11:45 a.m. Three specials were despatched in one hour and three-quarters.

Then came the giant Olympic with 4846 aboard. High winds prevented her immediate docking and the troops or most of them, had to be brought off by tenders. This proved a laborious job for all concerned, but by dint of hard work, special after special was sent forward until the great liner was cleared. This consumed a great deal of time, and before there was much time to think about it, the Celtic, with 3200 men, and the Minnehada, with 2451 reached dock, both on March 27th. Eight special trains were utilized to handle the complement from the Celtic, while six were necessary to take care of the forwarding of those from aboard the Minnehada.

On March 30th, at 3:30 p.m., the Regina docked with 1981 officers and men from practically every province in Canada. Within three hours and 20 minutes, 5 special trains had been despatched and the local units had been fed for the regular trains. On April 1st, the Canada docked at 9 o'clock. She carried 1351 soldiers. Three special trains had been despatched within 3 hours and 35 minutes after disembarkation; the actual time between departure of the first and that of the last, being three-quarters of an hour.

On April 6 the Northland docked at 4:40 p.m. She carried 1227 soldier passengers. Two hours later her complement had been forwarded, only 13 minutes past-points, 49,000 military passengers between the departure of the trains. It is at this point in the records that the most prominent mention is made of the large amount of military baggage to be handled. On the same date the Caronia docked at 8:10 p.m. She carried 3364 passengers and 8 specials were despatched in 4 hours. On April 9 the Megantic arrived in the harbour with 1179 soldier passengers and 200 civilians, a total of 1379. The Megantic did not dock at once and the disembarkation of troops was carried on by tender, necessarily a slow, laborious process, but three soldier and one civilian special had been despatched in two and three-quarter hours. On the day following, the Lapland docked at 5:30 in the evening with 1074 passengers, and in a little more than three hours later, 4 specials were despatched. Eight days later—April 18—the Carmania docked at 7:25 p.m. The Carmania was despatched in a little more than 6 hours. There is also a note in the records in the case of this ship about the quantity of baggage to be handled. Two days later—April 20—the Adriatic arrived at 5:25 p.m. with 1841 passengers. Four hours after the time of docking 4 special trains had been despatched.

Then on April 21 the Olympic was back again. She docked at 1:38 a.m., and carried 5572 military passengers and 300 civilians,

BUY A N IRRIGATED FARM FROM THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY BECAUSE:

Irrigation makes the farmer independent of rainfall, and in some good crops, not occasionally, but every year.

Irrigation makes possible the successful culture of alfalfa, the king of fodders, which insures good returns in dairying and mixed farming.

Irrigation means intensive farming and close settlement with all the advantages of a densely populated agricultural community.

Irrigation in the Canadian Pacific Railway Irrigation Block is no longer an experiment, the years that it has been tried having absolutely demonstrated its success wherever it intelligently applied.

You can buy irrigated land from the Canadian Pacific Railway at prices up to $40 per acre, with 30 years to pay and the privilege of a loan of $2,000 for improvement.

(5% interest) no principle after first payment until end of fourth year, reduced interest if settlement conditions are complied and no water rental for first year. Contract can be paid off before maturity if desired.

Transporting Canada's

A total of 5872. Eleven special trains were despatched within 7 hours and a half, and a civilian special was also sent forward carrying about 200 passengers. There was an unusually large amount of baggage to be handled, but this is regarded as one of the best troop movements since the first of the year.

On April 23, the Belgic, with 3320 officers and troops aboard, came in a day ahead of schedule. Six hundred of these passengers were dispersed from Halifax, but the remainder were moved over C.N.R. rails in seven special trains.

The handling of these 49,009 troops and civilians by special train movement is regarded in Canadian railway circles generally as a highly satisfactory performance, but it reflects especial credit upon the staffs of the old Government lines which are now the Maritime Provinces portion of Canadian National Railways. The railway service is keenly responsive to the great obligation of handling such large bodies of troops over long distances by rail. There is also a desire on the part of the trainmen to facilitate the possible speed, and the men in the operating departments especially as carrying, and will continue to carry, heavy responsibilities until the last troop ship and the last body of Canadian troops have been cleared from the ocean ports.

A False Report

The report that the sale of War Savings and Thrift Stamps is about to be abandoned by the Dominion Government is denied in the following statement issued by the minister of Finance:—

"The war savings movement is gaining momentum, the sales increasing with each month. It is however an experiment and, if after a fair trial, it be found that the movement on the present lines is out of proportion to the success attained, the question of discontinuing active propaganda will then have consideration."

"In any event war savings and thrift stamps will be on sale for public purchase during the entire current year and as large a measure of volunteer support as possible will be welcomed."

The Value of True Manhood

If any one thing was demonstrated by the Great War over all other things it was value of the individual, all-round, young man, that is, the man who was developed, and fit physically, morally, intellectually. In saying this it is not to be assumed that the man who was lacking in physical strength and development, or had not enjoyed the advantages of education, or, indeed, the man who was not as sound morally as he ought to have been, did not do his duty, do it well, and accomplish great things. Thousands of such men played a noble and glorious part, but many other thousands were rejected by army doctors from the opportunity of active service, and many thousands more or less illiterate men were not able to command the responsible positions which otherwise might have been entrusted to them. The all-round man had the better chance. He may have been no braver, or keener, or patriotic than others, but he had the equipment of an all-round manhood to do things, and he was entrusted with the doing, and he did it.

Just as the war called for the services of such men, so does the many and varied problems now to be faced call, and possibly even more imperatively, for men of the all-round type of manhood. The war has taught us, through the disclosures of the army medical boards, the necessity of further safeguarding the health of the people, and Governments everywhere are devoting attention to the subject. In the army emphasis was laid on the fact that the educated man was a better soldier than the uneducated one, so the army conducted schools to teach illiterate men to read and write. The effect of a man's moral standards on his whole character soon displayed itself. The cumulative effect has been to impress on the nations certain facts and important lessons which, in the general industrial and commercial race after the dollar before the war, people were largely ignoring.

Before the war there was one great organization which had not lost sight of the importance of developing the all-round man, a man strong in spirit, mind and body. During the war such an organization inevitably came into greater prominence and found open to it a still greater field of activity and usefulness. The reference is to the Y.M.C.A. But where, as prior to the war its energies were largely confined to the cities and larger towns, the necessity for the expansion of its work to the smaller towns, villages and country parts is now seen, with the result that a Town and Country Work department has been created by the National Y.M.C.A. Council of Canada, and a plan of organization outlined for carrying on such work.

There is now being inaugurated in the country and smaller towns and villages lacking Association buildings and equipment, Y.M.C.A. work on a plan of county or district organizations. These smaller communities are incapable individually of maintaining an adequate Association organization. The expense involved imposes too severe a financial burden, while at the same time it is impossible to adapt many of the general or larger city methods to these smaller communities. There are, nevertheless, in practically every community, no matter how small, certain prominent men, a group of willing workers, and a fair amount of available money for any good work. Combining these resources in a number of communities located within reasonably accessible distance of each other, and binding the groups of workers in each community into an Association brotherhood and pooling their financial resources, provides the way for efficient administration and the employment of an expert secretary to train, direct and supervise volunteer leaders at each point within the district organization.

Such a plan is worthy of the sympathetic and enthusiastic support of the people of Western Canada. The real strength and spirit of a community does not consist in what it receives from outside, but that which it develops within itself. The plan of organization outlined for this Town and Country Work will not provide the substantial buildings, gymnasiums, and other equipment to be found in cities, but too many people in these days make the mistake of wanting things to be done for them, instead of doing for themselves. What is done for men—and for communities as well—is apt to weaken them; what they do for themselves is sure to strengthen them. The old Bible saying is still true—it is more blessed to give than to receive.

It is also true that there is a task for every man and boy in every community and a boy or man for every task in every community. The maximum benefit is derived by man or boy and by the community when within the community these men, boys and tasks are brought together and an earnest effort made by the development of the abilities of the former to eliminate waste and render service.

The Y.M.C.A. aims to enlist the talent now lying latent throughout our smaller towns, villages and rural districts in the work of developing all-round boys and men in these communities, boys and men who will become the future leaders of this great Canadian commonwealth.

London. — There have been serious food riots at Stalsund, Pomerania, says an Exchange Telegraph company dispatch from Berlin. Troops were summoned and several were killed and wounded.

Bombard Allied Positions

Archangel. — The Bolsheviks continue the bombardment of the allied positions on the upper Dvina, apparently in the hope of driving the allies out before the allied gunboats can reach the scene. In the meantime, the gunboats are fighting their way up stream through a river filled with ice and it will be several days before they can reach the vicinity of Bereznik.

France SatisfiedWith Alliance

With Two Most Powerful Nations in the World

Paris. — "I have done my best. I think it is a good peace." This declaration was made to the editor of the Figaro by Premier Clemenceau. The editor adds that from details he has been able to learn he is convinced that all France is weighing well the immense advantages she will gain from collaboration with Great Britain and the United States. If it is a good peace, the editor continued, it is also a better one because it is an alliance with the two most powerful nations of the world.

Referring to the meeting of the French cabinet, the editor says that, after the peace terms were read by Captain Andre Tardieu, a speech was made by Premier Clemenceau, who outlined the efforts he had had to make, often under most difficult circumstances, to elaborate the text as it now stands. The premier also gave a complete statement on the negotiations with Italy over Fiume and on the latest dispatches exchanged with the Italian delegation.

Increase in Stock Receipts

Edmonton, Alta. — Receipts at the stock yards during the month of March included 2,833 cattle, as compared with 1,408 for the same month last year, and this did not include 588 calves, which was more than double the number of last year also. Hog receipts for March, 1919, were way down, the figures showing 2,729, as compared with 4,676 last year in March. Sheep receipts were 2,410 for March, 1919, as compared with 11 the year previous, and horses passing through the yards this year were 534, as compared with 203 last year for the same month. The cattle receipts for Edmonton this year to date show a wonderful increase, considerably more than doubling last year's figures for the same period. The figures for this year are 12,917 cattle, as compared with 5,248 last year. These totals include 1,234 calves this year and 720 last. Receipts of hogs for the same period show a decrease from 12,375 last year to 10,411 this year. Sheep receipts to date this year are 8,949, compared to 155 in 1918, and horse receipts at 1,272, are nearly four times the receipts of last year for the same period.

Belgian Councillor Fined for Sending Birthday Greetings

Dusseldorf. — Commercial Councillor Underberg of Moers, Belgium, whose estate abuts the Dutch frontier, instructed his gardener to cross the border and dispatch a message of birthday greetings to the former German emperor.

The latter acknowledged the compliment on a postcard which fell into the hands of the Belgian authorities. Underberg was prosecuted and sentenced to jail with a fine of 100 francs for carrying on forbidden communication with the former emperor.

To Allow Amateur Wireless Stations

Ottawa. — The wartime regulations cancelling all licenses issued for the operation of amateur wireless stations throughout the Dominion have been rescinded. The amateur wireless operator may, therefore, once more resume his experiments, subject to the pre-war regulations. There were, at the outbreak of hostilities, some hundred and ten licensed amateur stations in Canada. These licenses were all withdrawn as a war measure, and amateur stations have not been operating in Canada since August, 1914.

Now Well and Strong as Ever

After a Year of Great Suffering from Kidney Disease and Lame Back—Two Interesting Letters

Lindale, Alta. — May 19. — It is only after sickness that one properly appreciates health. The writers of these letters show how they appreciate the means whereby health was regained, and recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to others.

If kidney disease is to be cured it must be taken in hand early, and that is why the warning given by backache, headache and urinary derangements should be heeded and treatment begun at once.

Mr. C. E. Raymus, Lindale, Alta., writes: "I was a great sufferer from kidney disease and lame back for one day and night. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and acting upon his advice, I tried them. After I had taken one box I felt better, so I continued until I had used five boxes. By this time I felt as well and strong as ever, and am glad to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to anyone suffering as I did."

"I know Mr. C. E. Raymus, and believe his statement in regard to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to be true and correct."—John Torbett, Postmaster.

Mr. Thomas Austin, Earl Grey, Sask., writes: "I wish to let you know what Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills did for me. Last summer my back ached so much that I not only could not sleep at night, but could not lie in comfort in bed. I tried several remedies, and finally tried for three boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, but was quite cured by the time I had used one box. I always recommend these Pills to anyone suffering the same as I did, as I am satisfied and thankful that they cured me."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute or imitation. The portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., are on every box of the genuine.

Peace Treaty Will Protect Europe

Prevents an Alliance With the Russian Bolsheviks

Paris. — The territorial status of Germany as definitely settled by the council of three, says Marcel Hutin, in the Echo de Paris, will in the view of the council protect the general security of Europe. The chapter in which these decisions are incorporated, he adds, puts an effective veto on the "Drang Nach Osten" movement which the Germans desire to pursue, prevents an alliance with the Russian Bolsheviks, and forbids the incorporation in Germany of German-Austria.

As regards German-Austria, M. Hutin says that its peace delegates will certainly be called to Paris and Austria will be made a neutral republic under the aegis of the league of nations with the prohibition that she shall not ally or incorporate herself with Germany.

The council of three, M. Hutin declares, also adopted a chapter in the peace treaty defining the status of Alsace and Lorraine which are given absolutely to France.

The outline of the new frontiers of Germany were presented to the council in a report by the special commission composed of Viscount Morley, representing Great Britain; Captain Andre Tardieu for France; and Professor Charles H. Haskins, on behalf of the United States.

Regina, Sask. — Soldier land seekers are coming to northern Saskatchewan in great numbers, so much so that the soldier settlement board has found it necessary to reorganize the methods of conducting affairs at Prince Albert, and has placed a permanent board in charge, responsible direct to the commissioners at Ottawa. A staff of eleven persons are engaged. A permanent board under the soldier settlement scheme has also been appointed at Saskatoon. Seven inspectors are at work on applications for loans.

Brothers Won*Victoria Cross

Words King Addressed to Mrs. Bradford Were Sympathetic

London. — The King's investiture at Buckingham Palace recently was notable for one feature of a character quite unprecedented—the bestowal upon a bereaved mother for the second occasion of the Victoria Cross, won by a son who had met his death in action. This mother of heroes was Mrs. Bradford, and the Cross which the King handed to her was awarded to her son, Lieutenant Commander George Bradford, for his gallant conduct on the Iris at Zeebrugge. At a previous investiture Mrs. Bradford had received from His Majesty the V.C. won by her other son, Brigadier-General Bradford, the youngest officer in the British army to attain that rank, which he gained at the age of 24. The few words which the King addressed to Mrs. Bradford in handing her the decoration were of an especially cordial and sympathetic character.

Heart Palpitated Could Count Every Beat

When the heart begins to palpitate, it will beat fast for several seconds, then slow, then start to flutter, and a feeling of utter depression will come over your whole system, accompanied by weak, fainting and dizzy spells.

When the heart gets into this condition, you become weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to either social, business or household duties.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will give prompt and permanent relief to all sufferers from any heart weakness or nerve derangements.

Mrs. Walter Graves, Apsley, Ont., writes: "I had been run down, and doctors told me I was anemic, but did not help me with their medicines. I could not sleep nights, my heart palpitated so, and I could count every beat."

"I used to have such dizzy spells I would have to go to bed. I was not able to do any work for eight months. A cousin of mine had taken Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and told me what they had done for her. I took eight boxes of them, and now I am able to help every day with the work. I am so thankful to tell others what they have done for me, so that they may try this great and wonderful remedy. I hope this may prove good to some one who is suffering the way I did."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Says German Militarism Broken

London Sees Parade Of Overseas Troops

General Currie With His Staff Headed the Procession

London. — Residents of the west end of London turned out in force to welcome 11,000 overseas troops, who marched through the main streets, and were reviewed by King George at Buckingham Palace. Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Newfoundland were represented in the parade, while famous Canadian airmen flew overhead.

General Currie, of the Canadian army, with his staff, including Prince Arthur of Connaught, headed the procession, each unit was headed by commanding officers and their staffs. The parade was one of the many demonstrations designed to announce the coming of peace. Thousands viewed the parade, and special facilities were provided for children.

IS THERE A BABY IN YOUR HOME?

Is there a baby or young children in your home? If there is you should not be without a box of Baby's Own Tablets. Childhood ailments come quickly and means should always be at hand to promptly fight them. Baby's Own Tablets are the ideal home remedy. They regulate the bowels; sweeten the stomach; banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers; if taken they relieve all the minor ills of little ones. Concerning them Mrs. Moise, Cadotte, Makamik, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best remedy in the world for little ones. My baby suffered terribly from indigestion and vomiting, but the Tablets soon set her right and now she is in perfect health." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Moisture Down 24 Inches

Calgary, Alta. — In its second crop report the Letbridge Herald said the moisture conditions east and southeast, in what last year was a very dry belt, are most favorable, moisture being reported down 18 to 24 inches in the soil, and farther in summer fallow. Breaking conditions are ideal. Along the Aldersyde line the land is working up in good condition, but the reserve supply of moisture is small. From Macleod west and north moisture conditions are practically normal for this time of year.

Huns Will Now Face the Inevitable

Berlin. — Official quarters in Berlin have learned the probable terms of the cabinet followed, at which the action which Germany is to take was discussed. It was considered in some quarters that Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau would refuse to sign the peace treaty and resign, but the opinion is general that Germany must accept, since she is helpless.

The resignation of the foreign minister would only delay a settlement of the question, for, if his cabinet left office with him, independents, it is believed, would surely take up their positions and their first act would be to complete the terms.

The first newspaper in Berlin to publish the forecast headed it, "Germany's end as a great power."

The Tageblatt says the size of the German army can only be decided by the league of nations and that it will be impossible to pay £1,000,000,000 indemnity. The newspaper calls the decision regarding the Saar "Hardly disguised annexation," and says that it cannot be accepted.

The Danzig solution also is declared to be unacceptable. The decision as to Germany's former colonies is arousing protests.

The National Zeitung publishes what it terms the official standpoint the government expects to take regarding the peace terms.

The government, according to the newspaper, will refuse to sign any part of the treaty which provides for "Oppression of Germany." For instance, the entente's standpoint regarding Danzig and the Saar Valley will not be acceptable. The German delegates, however, will make every effort to institute negotiations on these and other unacceptable demands.

Clause Stipulates Kaiser's Trial

Paris. — The clause regarding responsibilities, which was not acted on at the previous session of the plenary conference, it is understood, has been incorporated in the final draft of the treaty. This provides for the trial of the former German emperor for a supreme offence "against international morality and the sanctity of treaties," by a tribunal composed of representatives of Great Britain, the United States, France, Italy, and Japan.

Germans Would Massacre Jews

London. — An Exchange Telegraph company dispatch from Berlin reported that hatred against the Jews has been displayed recently in the German capital and that placards have been distributed, asking the citizens to massacre Jews because, the notices assert, the Jews killed 200 children at Easter.

End of Germany As a Military Power

Versailles. — Today the allied terms of peace were handed to the German delegates. The document, long as it is, is shorter than was indicated by the forecasts, which estimated its length at 100,000 words. The treaty is not printed in German. The text is in French and English, on opposite pages.

The terms of the treaty spell the end of Germany as a military power. She is deprived of virtually all her fleet; her army is cut down to nominal dimensions, and she is sharply restricted along lines through which she might seek to work militarily and rehabilitate herself. Economically, also, the future of Germany is hedged about with stipulations intended to insure her ability to pay the indemnity demanded by the allies, and to prevent her from exploiting her old-time resources as a struggling competitor of the nations about her which she over-ran and devastated during the war.

Thus, for instance, Germany, for a period of years at least, will be deprived of the coal output of the rich Saar basin, which goes to France in repayment of the damage caused by the destruction of the French coal mines. She likewise is compelled to make restitution for the damage in other ways done to France, Belgium, and the various other countries, which suffered from Teutonic depredations in various forms. In numerous other ways she is made to realize that her more than four years' career of destruction must be made good.

Elaborate preparations were made for the historic occasion of handing

Unrest in India

Afghan Troops and Tribesmen Cross Border and Trouble Expected

London. — Afghan tribesmen have crossed the Afghan border with the assistance of Afghan regular troops and have occupied certain positions on the Indian side of the border, according to a despatch from the India foreign office. Military precautions have been taken by the British, who have addressed a vigorous note to the Amir.

It has been reported for some time that the new Amir had adopted an unfriendly attitude towards the British and contemplated an invasion of the northwest frontier and Khyber Pass, the principal northern pass into that country from India. No large number of tribesmen are concerned, but they have occupied some heights of importance commanding two roads leading across the frontier.

Siberian Army Needs Clothes

Unique Plan Devised for Providing Wearing Apparel

Vladivostok. — The Siberian army needs underwear and the powers that be have devised a unique plan for providing this wearing apparel. In brief, this solution is conscription of underwear.

The male population of the city is ordered to provide the clothing on the following scale:

Those enjoying a salary of 600 to 1,000 roubles a month must supply one set. Those who earn from 1,000 to 1,500 roubles a month are asked for two sets. From 1,500 to 2,000 roubles the tax is three sets, and from 2,000 roubles upward, four sets. Owners of real estate and commercial and industrial firms have to furnish underwear on the same scale, according to the income of their business. A set of underwear consists of one shirt, one pair of pants, one pair of socks and two pairs of foot rags.

British Shell Bolsheviks

Archangel. — British gunboats were active against the Bolsheviks for the first time recently. They co-operated with a strong patrol which broke through an enemy outpost north of Tulgas and destroyed dugouts and an ammunition dump.

A Bolshevik attempt against the British United States and Russian positions at Malo Beresienick was repulsed.

Ambassador of Reds Was Shot

Copenhagen. — When Polish forces captured Vilna recently they captured and shot Adolphe Joffe, the former Russian Bolshevik ambassador at Berlin, according to Polish newspapers received here.

German Spokesman Refused to Stand

His Speech Was Translated Sentence by Sentence

London. — Describing the scene at the Trianon Palace when the terms of peace were handed to the German delegation, a Paris dispatch to the Central News says that Premier Clemenceau stood while making his address; but that Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the spokesman of the Germans, wearing big horn spectacles, remained seated while he read his speech, which was translated sentence by sentence.

Versailles. — The scene of the session, when the terms of the treaty were presented to the German delegates, was an impressive one and the function was not without its tense moments. Indeed the entire half hour which it took Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau to deliver his reply was a period of tenseness for Premier Clemenceau, Premier Lloyd George and President Wilson, and in fact for virtually everyone present.

The speech was translated by the German interpreters, who did not fail to bring out with emphasis every sharp phrase in it, and the three allied statesmen put their heads together in evident anger at more than one of the German spokesman's cutting utterances as if they were deliberating the advisability of an immediate answer.

At the head of the table the striking faces of Premiers Clemenceau and Lloyd George and President Wilson attracted every eye. Marshal Foch, sitting with the French delegation at the head of one of the side tables, was another conspicuous figure. The bearded faces of the Serbian statesman, M. Pachitch, and the Greek premier, M. Venizelos, as well as the familiar head of Ignace Jan Paderewski, the Polish premier, also stood out from the mass of delegates. The impressive faces of the Japanese representatives, the Oriental lineaments of the Chinese, the brown countenances of the Arabs from Hedjaz, and the presence even of the two delegates from Liberia and Haiti gave evidence that this was really a world congress.

Demobilization Complete By End of Year

Mewburn Says That All Troops Are Expected Home by August

Ottawa. — General Mewburn made the statement that by next February the estimate was that they would be through with militia hospitalization. Patients in military hospitals in England were being evacuated quicker than expected. Under 14,000 were still to be returned to Canada and of these 1,700 were still in hospitals in France. He said there were almost 14,000 in Canada. He expected that the whole of the troops would be back by August, and by the end of the year no one would be retained except for the problem of clearing up.

Belgium Asks for Big Loan

Without Such Aid the Country Will Be Lost

Brussels. — The Belgian government has decided to ask the allies for an immediate loan of $500,000,000. "Without such aid the country will be lost," said M. Jasper, minister of economics, to the Associated Press. "This loan will be secured by German indemnities. It will not suffice for Belgium to receive a priority indemnity to the extent of half a billion dollars. This sum will not be forthcoming for a couple of years, and it is impossible for Belgium to hold out that long."

Work on Hudson Bay Railway

Ottawa. — Hon. George Langley, J. A. Maharg and J. A. Campbell, interviewed Hon. J. D. Reid, minister of railways, in an effort to ascertain if any steel would be laid on the Hudson Bay railway this summer. The minister, while not making a definite statement, declared that he was favorable to the work proceeding. He said that the awards of tenders for ties would be announced in a day or so.

Provincial Premiers to Meet

Ottawa. — A conference of provincial premiers (Liberal) or their representatives, has been called to be held in Ottawa on May 17, to consider with the leader of the opposition, the chief whip and the opposition committee the details of national convention to be held here on August 5, 6 and 7.

Another Canadian Loan

Ottawa. — In the house of commons Sir Thomas White intimated that the government intended to float another domestic loan, probably in September. The amount was not stated.

Summary of Peace Pact

Germany is deprived of her fleet.

Her army is cut to small size.

Military aspirations are pruned.

Economic restrictions are laid down so that she can pay indemnities.

She cannot strangle competition in trade.

Saar basin coal output goes to France for years.

She must make restitution for damage to France, Belgium and other countries.

Heligoland must be demolished.

Kiel Canal must be freed.

Alsace-Lorraine will be returned.

Ex-kaiser Wilhelm will be tried.

German territory must be ceded on all hands to surrounding allied nations.

Frontier of 1871 has to be restored.

She must renounce rights to all colonies.

Dismantling of Rhine fortresses demanded.

Assume pre-war debts on ceded territory.

Allow unhindered transit in Germany.

Internationalize her rivers and give up control of the Rhine.

Germany must also pay to the limit the cost of the war to all allied nations.

Ammunition Depot Explodes

Many Killed and Country South of Brussels Devastated

Brussels. — A depot of German ammunition containing shells and bombs of every calibre and many gas shells has been exploding at the railway station at Groendael, six miles south of Brussels, where Canadian troops were inspected by King Albert eight days ago. The depot has been under guard of 150 Belgian soldiers, and six hundred German prisoners have been at work near it. It is believed there are many killed and wounded, but the number of victims will not be known for several days.

Many houses in the neighborhood have completely collapsed and windows and roofs for two miles around the scene of the explosion have been shattered. This is especially the case at Hecylert and neighboring towns where there are thousands of hot houses. The movement of trains over the Namur Luxembourg line has been interrupted. It is reported that while workmen were unloading a wagon filled with shells a detonator exploded in the hands of a German prisoner, setting fire to the ammunition boxes. After the explosion the German prisoners broke the barbed wire cord surrounding the camp and fled in all directions through the woods. Only 150 have been arrested since. The Belgian guards at the depot succeeded in escaping in safety. The explosions were clearly heard in Brussels.

Munich Expresses Joy

Munich. — All Munich celebrated the victory over the Soviet government. The streets were crowded with people who cheered the "passing" of the Spartacists or gave them refreshments. Captured Spartacists were hooted as they were escorted through the streets, bands played national airs outside the captured palace and the crowds sang patriotic anthems.

Germany Refuses to Pay Indemnity

Paris. — The German delegates to the peace congress declare that they will sign the peace treaty, but that Germany will not pay an indemnity. In the discussion of peace terms by Germany, through both her official and unofficial spokesmen, she has invariably drawn a distinction between reparations and indemnity, construing the latter in effect as punitive damages. It seems probable, therefore, that the refusal to pay an "indemnity" would mean in effect that she would decline to pay what she regarded as such damages.

Cheap British Automobile

London. — An English manufacturing company announces that it is prepared to put on the market an automobile that can be retailed for between £50 and £60. Scarcely any wood will be used in the construction of the car, the principal material being a new substance which is described as "a kind of concrete, light, but strong and durable, produced from waste material such as slag, clinkers, and sawdust, and covered with a metal solution."

Government Should Aid In Exporting Grain Crop

H. W. Wood Says That Failure Would Be Crime Against People

Calgary. — Unless at an early date adequate steps are taken by the Dominion government to assist in financing the export of the grain crop of 1919, Canada will be confronted with the greatest conceivable disaster, is the opinion of H. W. Wood, president of the United Farmers of Alberta. "If present prospects are fulfilled," said he, "the harvest of the present season will be the greatest in our history, and exactly for this reason it is our duty and it is of the utmost importance that steps should be taken to insure that it shall find an outlet."

"I can conceive of no more serious crime against the people of this country than for the authorities to fail to take the necessary steps. 'Perhaps,' said he, 'the government has a plan, but if so, I certainly have heard nothing of it, and it is of the utmost importance that the farmers should be reassured in this matter. The vital interests, not only of the farmers, but of the whole community, are bound up in agriculture.'"

Helium for Airships

Large Quantities Will Be Produced in Canada at Low Price

London. — Professor McLennan of Toronto University, was invited by the British admiralty in 1915 to investigate the possibility of large scale production of helium, found in large quantities available in natural gas in Ontario and western Canada, producible at a cost of a shilling per cubic foot. The United States also co-operated and gave large orders for machinery and plants. Thus the possibility of securing large supplies of helium was assured simultaneously with the practical details of production.

Airships inflated with helium have been developed by the British navy and the progress made warrants the opinion that, in another year large quantities of helium will be produced in Canada at a low price and helium-filled airships will be in service.

Scheme for Tunnel Formulated in 1867

Experiences of War Have Made It Nearer Fulfillment

London. — The revived interest shown in the project of constructing a tunnel under the Straits of Dover to connect England and France by railway is a reminder that this scheme was first formulated in 1867, and that only the experiences of the war and the increased friendship between the two countries on either side of the channel have made it nearer fulfillment. Ever since the report of the first Anglo-French committee was made on the subject, active work has been held up by the attitude of British military opinion. That opinion, according to Sir Arthur Eell, M.P., the chairman of the house of commons channel tunnel committee has now experienced a change, and from this change arises the hope of the supporters of the scheme, that the construction of the tunnel may at last be taken in hand.

Sweden's Last Year Harvest

Stockholm. — In spite of the fact that the result of last year's harvest in Sweden might be described as medium compared with the harvest of 1917, the monetary value shows a great increase for nearly all kinds of cereals and vegetables. The central bureau of statistics estimates that the total value of the harvest amounts to the large sum of 2,360,432,000 crowns, an increase of over 1,000,000,000 crowns on the average of 1913-1917, the amount then being 1,223,287,000 crowns.

Dutch Frontier Problem

Brussels. — In reply to an invitation from Belgian socialists to their Dutch comrades to proceed to the Belgian capital in order to discuss the differences relating to the disposal of frontier territories, the Dutch socialists have appointed a delegation for that purpose. It will consist of Messrs. Suez Groeneweg, deputy for Rotterdam; Vliegen and Gigant, magistrates of Amsterdam, and Roode, editor of the paper Het Volk.

Went to Conference in Airplane

Paris. — Paul Hymans, the Belgian foreign minister, left Brussels in an airplane at one o'clock and reached here at two p.m., in time to attend the plenary session of the peace conference.

Austria Must Pay Large Indemnity

Japanese Fix Indemnity Claim

On Account of Destruction of Tonnage During War

Washington. — Japan's claim for indemnity from Germany on account of the destruction of Japanese tonnage during the war will amount to not less than $175,000,000, according to advices from Tokio. The Japanese steamers actually sunk number 26, totalling 110,451 tons and in addition, five vessels of 17,964 tons are regarded as having been sunk by German craft, although there is no conclusive proof. In the aggregate, these vessels number 31, totalling 128,415 tons. The amount of damages desired for loss of tonnage does not include personal damages due to the loss of lives.

Soviets Arrest Revolutionists

London. — A wireless message from Budapest announces the execution by the revolutionary tribunal of two men and imprisonment for a long term, with hard labor, of several others, under accusation of planning a conspiracy on a large scale. In a public speech, the Hungarian commissary, Mr. Szamueli, has described the duty of the Bolsheviks as the stirring up of revolution throughout the whole of Europe.

Small Powers Allowed

Paris. — It was decided that the following delegations which were to be excluded will be admitted to the congress at Versailles when the peace terms are handed to the Germans: China, Siam, Cuba, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Hayti, Panama, Liberia and Honduras.

Chinese Objections

Pekin. — The Chinese cabinet, at a meeting decided to instruct the Chinese delegates in Paris not to sign a peace treaty assigning the German rights in Shantung to the Japanese.

Desirable Six-Room House

It is not necessary that the small inexpensive home should be unattractive as to exterior or incomplete and inconvenient in the interior.

The design shown herewith demonstrates those two facts absolutely.

A glance at the perspective and the reader instinctively thinks of an expensive home, but look at the floor plans and it will be seen that the house is only twenty-two feet by twenty-eight feet. The expensive effect is due to the fact that the lines of this home are artistically good and naturally the architectural proportioning is correct.

The large living room with its open fireplace is laid out so that furniture may be placed to display itself to advantage.

Notice may well be drawn to the secluded screened verandah and the sleeping balcony. Height is obtained for the sleeping balcony ceiling by the steps from the room floor level to the floor of the balcony.

This is an altogether to be desired small home.

Brief Speech Which Attended Peace Terms

Versailles. — In opening the session of the peace conference, M. Clemenceau, presiding officer, speaking to the Germans, said:

"It is unnecessary to express needless words. You have before you the plenipotentiaries of the small and great powers united in this most cruel war, which was imposed upon them. The hour has arrived for a heavy settlement of the account."

Paul Du Tasta, secretary-general of the peace conference, delivered a copy of the treaty to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German delegation, who made a brief reply.

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau said: "We declare that we do not deny the extent of our defeat. We know the power of the German armies is broken."

He said he was unable to admit that Germany was solely culpable and demanded that the allies make peace according to President Wilson's points.

Germany pledged itself to repair the wrong done to Belgium and gave assurance of the reconstruction of the territories in northern France.

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau asked for the liberation of German prisoners and said that Germany adopted the league of nations.

A Warning to Boys

A man in town has asked The Call to draw attention of parents to some of the boys who are in the habit of whipping, jerking on the lines and generally abusing ponies without reason. He states that he has spoken to some of the boys and received no attention from them, and that if this warning has no effect he will make trouble for them of a serious nature, although he would very much dislike to do so. He, however, believes that the parents know nothing of the way the boys abuse their sometimes underfed horses and will be glad to have their attention drawn to it.
